To whom it may concern,

Over my thirty-five years in business I have heard a number of motivational speakers. Some were excellent and some were not very good. On just about every occasion the speakers that were bad had no real story to impart with their message. This is certainly not the case with Mr. Sweeney. I would first put Mr. Kevin Sweeney in the "excellent" category of speakers. Hearing him make this presentation makes you feel like you grew up with him. Although Kevin claims to be an ordinary guy, his accomplishments speak quite differently. His enthusiasm alone has you sitting on the edge of your seat anxiously awaiting what is going to come out of his mouth next. His story HAS to be unique, and the way he melds "his" story into the total theme of Peak Performance makes his presentation flow like a river.

I would highly recommend Mr. Sweeney to anyone that would like his or her teams learn how to perform at Peak Performance.

Sincerely,

*W.E. "Buddy" Binyon
