Dear Kevin,

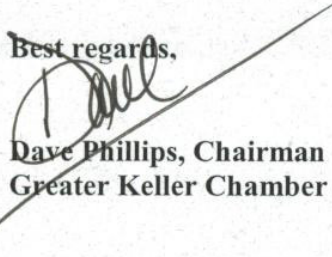

This is just a brief letter of appreciation for speaking at the Greater Keller Chamber of Commerce luncheon meeting.

Obviously, your topic of handling the pressure we all face in our daily lives was pertinent and beneficial to our members and luncheon guests.

Your points were well made and seemed to be of interest to your audience. You also stayed on track and managed your presentation time well. That's always appreciated in a limited time setting.

Feel free to use the Greater Keller Chamber of Commerce as a reference in marketing your program. I'm sure other business groups will find your presentation valuable.

Best regards,

Dave Phillips, Chairman
Greater Keller Chamber of Commerce
