Dear Kevin:

Monthly the Lewisville Area Chamber of Commerce has a luncheon. It is a time to gather, network, announce upcoming events, and recognize volunteers and to hear a featured speaker. The program is designed to educate, inform and amuse those gathered.

Beyond any shadow of doubt, this was one of the greatest presentations we have heard in quite some time. Your message was not only interesting, but it struck cords of many; whether in small business or in a position within "Corporate America." The entire room was focused on your speech. This, Kevin is the greatest compliment any speaker can have is the attentiveness of the crowd and their interest in its content.

Thank you so much for being such a significant part of our April 2005 Lewisville Area Chamber of Commerce monthly luncheon. We wish you continued success as you bring your message of the 4 I's to many more groups, associations and gatherings.

Sincerely,

Kimberly Jones
Director of Programs & Operations
